Bradley Shraiberg is a founding partner of Shraiberg, Ferrara & Landau, P.A. Mr. Shraiberg focuses on advising companies experiencing financial difficulties, purchasers of and investors in distressed companies, and lenders to and creditors of such companies. He also regularly advises officers and directors of companies involved in debt restructuring on matters relating to corporate governance and fiduciary duty.

During his career, Mr. Shraiberg has represented retail, manufacturing, construction and other companies requiring financial and operational restructuring. He has extensive experience with complex reorganizations. Some of the companies that Mr. Shraiberg has recently confirmed plans of reorganization for, or negotiated a structured, consensual, dismissal, include D'arcy Laboratories, LLC, R.J. Gators, Inc., House of Metals, Inc., Interfund Investment Fund I, Inc. and Alternate Family Care, Inc. Mr. Shraiberg also represents national retailers, landlords, and developers in their capacity as creditors within various insolvency proceedings such as Office Depot, Inc., Home Depot, Inc., Fiserv Securities, Anasca Homes, Imperial Finance, PGA Commons, Duffy's Sports Group and Sterling Development Corporation.

Due to the current economic conditions, a large portion of Mr. Shraiberg's clients are development companies and/or their principals. Mr. Shraiberg has extensive experience restructuring developers financing and finding alternative financing and/or angel investors. Mr. Shraiberg has negotiated with all of the major financial institutions and has amassed a network of investors that are interested in investing in or purchasing distressed assets.

Mr. Shraiberg is a member of the Florida Bar and is licensed to practice in the Federal District Courts for the Southern and Middle Districts of Florida. He is an active member of the Palm Beach County Bar Association, ABI and the Bankruptcy Bar Association for the Southern District of Florida where he is a past director and the past chairman of the local rules committee.

Mr. Shraiberg was recently recognized as a top bankruptcy and restructuring lawyer in the 2011 edition of Chambers & Partners USA, America's Leading Business Lawyers.
